

BANGALORE

Around town

World Street Food Festival

Till 31 August

The Big Pitcher, a brewpub, is offering world street food in the form of a buffet spread. On offer are delectable dishes and desserts, with cuisines ranging from Indian and Middle-Eastern, to Mexican, American and West Indian.

Noon-3pm. Big Pitcher, LR Arcade, HAL 2nd Stage, Ward 88, Old Airport Road (61344789). Meal for one, ₹499.

Photography

G Is For Gandhi

15-25 August

An exhibition of works by policeman-turned-self-taught photographer Cop Shiva, who clicked Bagadhalli Basavaraju, a schoolteacher in rural Karnataka, while he walked around the city wearing silver paint, a dhoti and M.K. Gandhi's trademark steel-rimmed spectacles. The black and white images will be the inaugural exhibition for the Kala

Ranga art space.

4-7pm; and 2-7pm on weekends. Kala Ranga, RBANMS Heritage Auditorium, 32, Dickenson Road. For details, call 9845001168. Prices, ₹25,000-35,000.

Art

Art Bengaluru 2014

21-30 August

The fifth edition of this annual art soiree will bring the Renaissance period alive, thanks to its theme of European art history. It will showcase 13 top galleries, including one from New York, US, and one from Vietnam, apart from presenting a popular artist from China, Liu Bolin, and his work for the first time in the country.

11am-8pm. The Collection, UB City, 24, Vittal Mallya Road (25001169).

Music

Galeej Gurus

21 August

Galeej Gurus have been on the circuit since 2000 and have played at over 500 gigs within and outside the country. The band's music includes indie, alternative, funk, and blues-rock.

8pm. Hard Rock Cafe, 40, St Marks Road (41242222). Tickets, ₹500 and ₹2,000, available on in.bookmyshow.com

Music

Time Capsule: Tribute To Michael Jackson

16 August

Bangalore-based musicians Gaurav Vaz, Willy Demoz, Bryden Lewis and Mark Lazaro, among others, will travel down memory lane by presenting some of the King of Pop's classic hits.

9pm. CounterCulture, 2D2, 4th Cross, Whitefield (41400793). Tickets, ₹400, available on in.bookmyshow.com

Content is powered by

Schedules might be subject to change