

No fuss

The ongoing Art Bengaluru has seen a lot of visitors coming by to take a look at artworks by SH Raza, MF Husain, KK Hebbar, Jogen Chowdhury and T Vaikuntam. This diarist has learnt that one particular installation by art director Thota Tharani has been grabbing a lot of eyeballs. A viewer told this diarist how he was amazed to see the National Film Award winner mingle with viewers without any pretence to his status. "The humility and simplicity of the man was just amazing," he said. That's nice, but we do not mind the flaky kind too.
