Make a bid for art

The members of the city's art frat have been pretty busy of late, what with attending the various events associated with Art Bengaluru 2012. The entire event came to a close with an auction of artworks at the ITC Windsor, which saw the who's who on the city's social circuit in attendance. Seen at the do was a stylish Vani Ganapathy, who looked stunning in a silver sari. We also spotted guests making bids and having a good time while buying art that caught their fancy. BT also caught a glimpse of Aslam Gafoor, Meena Kirloskar and Uzma Irfan at this do.
